From the Executive Director

This past year has been eventful for us. As we welcome our new Executive Board, we thank our outgoing president, Jay Lampport, for his many years of service to the community, and wish mazal tov to our new president, Dr. Solomon Davidoff.

Twenty years after building our Eruv we completed our second expansion; moving west and north. We have begun work on the dish mikvah, donated by Jay and Cheryl Lampport in memory of her parents, Clarence and Lillian Zitaner - long time pillars of our community. The front stairs were repaired and coated, making them more aesthetically pleasing and safer to walk on.

The Community Growth Committee put in a lot of work to lay the foundation for growth campaigns. The next steps, after the chagim, are to implement campaigns that put Malden on people's radar when they are looking for a Jewish community in Boston.

Like I said, it's been eventful. And we want you to be a part of it all. A community is nothing without its people. The life-blood of a community is the minyan, and we all must do our part to be at minyanim, on time - or, for those who are not obligated to daven with a minyan, to help our family members who are obligated to be able to be at minyanim. But there is still more to a community than minyanim. We have shiurim, se'udot, and celebrations.

One of my goals for this upcoming year is to find ways to foster volunteer involvement. We will explore new ways to express our gratitude to the people who for years have, and continue to, pour their time and energy into helping the Shul. We will also seek further opportunities for community engagement, to make space for new volunteers to give of their time and energy to the Shul, as well.

Thank you for being a part of the Beth Israel Malden family. We appreciate you sharing the journey with us as we grow into the future.

May you and your families have a ketiva va'chatima tova,

Matthew Garland, Executive Director

How You Can Help

Youth

Our mission is to provide you with the services, the environment, and the example to raise your children in a Torah-centric, meaningful, and giving lifestyle.

Our key factor is our Torah-centric environment. Yours is your family. Our children are our most important asset, and they are growing in every way! As they get older and become more mature and responsible contributing members of the Shul, we need to ramp up our programming to keep up with their growth.

Our children already love coming to Shul to be with their friends. With your help, they will also love to come to Shul to learn and engage in Judaism.

Mikvah

Our mikvah's reception area greets you with a sense of warmth and serenity. You know you'll have a positive experience, like those from all across Greater Boston and the North Shore who choose Mikvah Mayanei Tovah.

Our Sages declared that if you participate in building a Mikvah, you acquire a great merit to be blessed with a family that will be a source of pride to the Jewish people. You can still participate in this mitzvah by supporting its on-going maintenance, repair, and administrative costs!

Holidays

Costs of food and entertainment are always rising. Help us continue to offer and improve our holiday celebrations! Sponsorship opportunities include Chanukah, Purim, Lag B'Omer, and Simchat Torah.
